

High-Light Lesson for Ladies Study

From: The Good Portion Scripture

1. How does the Bible help us to truly know who God is?
2. Why is it important to understand the meaning of a text before attempting to apply the text?
3. If you were talking to a friend who has never read the Bible, how would you describe the Bible after studying “The Good Portion: Scripture”?
4. What has been the most helpful thing you have learned from our study of “The Good Portion: Scripture”?
5. How has studying God’s Word caused you to grow this year? What did you learn? How have you applied what you’ve learned?

6. What are the biggest challenges in your life right now to being consistently in the Word of God? How will you overcome these challenges?

From: The Son of God, Part 1 of Mark

1. Are you embracing the privilege of telling others about who Jesus is? If someone asked you, "Who is Jesus?" how would you answer?
2. Jesus has authority over all – including sickness & pain. How can this truth help you encourage other believers who are going through physical trials?
3. After studying Jesus' prayer life, how would you like your prayer life to change?
4. What tends to sidetrack you & cause you to forget about the priority of Jesus' teaching and your proclaiming the gospel? What can help you persevere in these things?

5. How can you make Jesus more central when you gather with other believers?

6. Do you consider your fellow church members to be your family? How can you cultivate deeper relationships with others in your church?

From: The Son of God, Part 2 of Mark

1. How does your life show that you are no longer a citizen of this world but a citizen of heaven? How can you live more fully with Jesus as your king?

2. In what ways do you struggle with fearing man rather than fearing God? What can help you in this struggle?

3. What competes with God for your love? What are some effects of loving these other things? How can you strive to love God with all your heart, soul, mind & strength instead of these things?

